Selected Poetry.

THE RAVEN.

BY EDGAR A. POE.

Once upon a midnight dreary, while I pondered weak and weary,
Over many a quaint and curious volume of forgotten lore,
While I nodded, nearly napping, suddenly there came a tapping,
As of some one gently rapping, rapping at my chamber door.—
"'Tis some visitor," I muttered, "tapping at my chamber door:
Only this, and nothing more."

Ah, distinctly I remember it was in the bleak December,
And each separate dying ember wrought its ghost upon the floor.
Eagerly I wished the morrow; vainly I had tried to borrow
From my books surcease of sorrow—sorrow for the lost Lenore—
For the rare and radiant maiden whom the angels name Lenore—
Nameless here forevermore.

And the silken sad uncertain rustling of each purple curtain
Thrilled me—filled me with fantastic terrors never felt before;
So that now, to still the beating of my heart, I stood repeating
"'Tis some visitor entreating entrance at my chamber door—
Some late visitor entreating entrance at my chamber door—
This it is, and nothing more."

Presently my soul grew stronger; hesitating then no longer,
"Sir," said I, "or madam, truly your forgiveness I implore;
But the fact is, I was napping, and so gently you came rapping,
And so faintly you came tapping, tapping at my chamber door,
That I scarce was sure I heard you"—here I opened wide the door—
Darkness there, and nothing more.

Deep into that darkness peering, long I stood there, wondering, fearing,
Doubting, dreaming dreams no mortal ever dared to dream before;
But the silence was unbroken, and the darkness gave no token,
And the only word there spoken was the whispered word "Lenore!"
This I whispered, and an echo murmured back the word, "Lenore!"
Merely this, and nothing more.

Then into the chamber turning, all my soul within me burning,
Soon I heard again a tapping, somewhat louder than before,
"Surely," said I, "surely that is something at my window lattice;
Let me see, then, what thereat is, and this mystery explore—
Let my heart be still a moment, and this mystery explore;—
'Tis the wind and nothing more.

Open here I flung the shutter, when, with many a flirt and flutter,
In there stepped a stately raven of the saintly days of yore;
Not the least obeisance made he; not an instant stopped or stayed he;
But, with mien of lord or lady, perched above my chamber door—
Perched upon a bust of Pallas just above my chamber door—
Perched, and sat, and nothing more.

Then this ebony bird beguiling my sad fancy into smiling,
By the grave and stern decorum of the countenance it wore,
"Though thy crest be shorn and shaven, thou," I said, "art sure no craven,
Ghastly grim and ancient raven, wandering from the Nightly shore—
Tell me what thy lordly name is on the Night's Plutonian shore!"
Quoth the raven, "Nevermore!"

Much I marvelled this ungainly fowl to hear discourse so plainly,
Though its answer little meaning—little relevancy bore;
For we cannot help agreeing that no living human being
Ever yet was blessed with seeing bird above his chamber door,
Bird or beast upon the sculptured bust above his chamber door,
With such a name as "Nevermore."

But the raven, sitting lonely on the placid bust, spoke only
That one word, as if his soul in that one word he did outpour,
Nothing farther then he uttered—not a feather then he fluttered,
Till I scarcely more than muttered, "Other friends have flown before—
On the morrow he will leave me, as my hopes have flown before."
Quoth the raven, "Nevermore."

Startled at the stillness broken by reply so aptly spoken,
"Doubtless," said I, "what it utters is its only stock in store,
Caught from some unhappy master whom unmerciful disaster
Followed fast and followed faster—so, when Hope he would adjure,
Stern Despair returned, instead of the Sweet Hope he dared adjure—
That sad answer, "Nevermore."

But the raven still beguiling all my sad soul into smiling,
Straight I wheeled a cushioned seat in front of bird, and bust, and door;
Then upon the velvet sinking, I betook myself to linking
Fancy unto fancy, thinking what this ominous bird of yore—
What this grim, ungainly, ghastly, gaunt, and ominous bird of yore,
Meant in croaking "Nevermore."

Thus I sat engaged in guessing, but no syllable expressing
To the fowl whose fiery eyes now burned into my bosom's core;
This and more I sat divining, with my head at ease reclining
On the cushion's velvet lining that the lamp-light gloated o'er,
But whose velvet violet lining with the lamp-light gloating o'er,
She shall press, ah, nevermore!

Then, methought, the air grew denser, perfumed from an unseen censer,
Swung by angels whose faint foot-falls tinkled on the tufted floor.
"Wretch," I cried, "thy God hath lent thee—by these angels he hath sent thee
Respite—respite and Nepenthe from thy memories of Lenore!
Quaff, oh! quaff this kind Nepenthe and forget this lost Lenore!"
Quoth the raven, "Nevermore."

"Prophet!" said I, "thing of evil!—prophet still if bird or devil!—
Whether tempter sent, or whether tempest tossed thee here ashore,
Desolate, yet all undaunted, on this desert land enchanted—
On this home by Horror haunted—tell me truly, I implore—
Is there—is there balm in Gilead?—tell me—tell me, I implore!"
Quoth the raven, "Nevermore."

"Prophet!" said I, "thing of evil!—prophet still, if bird or devil!
By that heaven that bends above us—by that God we both adore—
Tell this soul with sorrow laden if, within the distant Aidenn,
It shall clasp a sainted maiden whom the angels name Lenore:
Clasp a rare and radiant maiden whom the angels name Lenore."
Quoth the raven, "Nevermore."

"Be that word our sign of parting, bird or fiend!" I shrieked, upstarting—
"Get thee back into the tempest and the Night's Plutonian shore—
Leave no black plume as a token of that lie thy soul hath spoken!
Leave my loneliness unbroken!—quit the bust above my door!
Take thy beak from out my heart, and take thy form from off my door!"
Quoth the raven, "Nevermore."

And the raven never flitting, still is sitting, still is sitting
On the pallid bust of Pallas just above my chamber door;
And his eyes have all the seeming of a demon that is dreaming,
And the lamp-light o'er him streaming throws his shadow on the floor;
And my soul from out that shadow that lies floating on the floor,
Shall be lifted—nevermore!

FARMERS' BOYS.

MR. EDITOR:—By your permission I wish to say a few words to farmers' boys on a subject of much importance to them.

One of the crying evils of the day is the dissatisfaction of farmers' boys with their lot in life. This evil is rapidly on the increase. Almost every day we see new proofs of it.

Many young men in the country, with false ideas of life and the world, look down with disdain and contempt on the calling of their fathers. The most ancient and honorable of callings is mean and degrading in their sight. They have obtained some imperfect conceptions of the value of wealth; of the supposed exemption in the pursuits of literature and the learned professions; and of the special advantages of living in the town or city.

Hence, they naturally and impulsively feel desirous of some course of life where the road is less rugged, and where the rewards of labor are more consonant with their feelings than tilling the ground.—With the wonted ardor of youth they picture to themselves scenes of perpetual pleasure in the possession of great riches—of literary fame—of release from toil and anxiety, and, above all, in the homage supposed to be paid to all in the elevated stations of society. This is all natural, but it is, after all, rather a delusion than a reality. All these scenes are presented to their young and ardent imaginations through glasses of the highest magnifying power. Their vision has been engrossed with the bright, and not at all with the dark spots in the picture. They simply glanced at the gilded trappings of wealth, without stopping to consider the multitudes constantly sinking in the agonies of despair, before half reaching the object of their aspirations. They simply heard the shouts and huzzas floating over their heads, to the conquerors of fleets and armies, without inquiring how many thousands and tens of thousands perished in the conflicts, their names now forgotten, and as little regarded as the dust under our feet.

Now, my young friends, when brooding with seeming discontent over the monotonous destinies of rural life, and aspiring after something more stirring—more dazzling—more satisfying, let me entreat you to look upon the hitherto neglected portions of the picture you have drawn.

Among the aspirants for political elevation, only a few reach the summit which they desired; and, when reached, it was so encumbered with the jealousy and envy of disappointed rivals, it was barely worth having, and certainly not worth the cost paid for it.

Among the votaries of literary distinction, only a few become known, and are recognized in the republic of letters; and of these, not one, perhaps, in a thousand will be remembered by posterity. And also, among the adventurers for fortune, where one obtains a permanent competency, a hundred sink in poverty; it may be with broken spirits and ruined health; and, it may be said for a certainty, not one in ten thousand becomes really rich. Besides, a literary, professional, or mercantile life is by no means a life of indolence or ease. There is in it an increasing application to study, a wasting of spirit and physical energy far greater than in the labor on a farm; and, in the search after wealth, there is usually an anxiety, and care, and vexation, and disappointment, far more incompatible with real happiness than the fatigues and privations incident to agriculture.

I have no intention of making you disgusted with the world; but to caution you against its false appearances. Look at the world as it is. Examine it in its true aspect. Imagine not that to be gold which is merely gilded brass. Imagine not that to be rest and dignified leisure, when corroding care and solicitude, like a canker, are eating up the soul; nor imagine that a bed of roses is spread within your reach for your repose, when a few hours of experience would teach you that it consisted of thorns.

There are, it is true, situations in life more desirable than that of a day-laborer on a farm. But the difference between them is not so great as is generally supposed. And then, the chances for obtaining them are so small, the experiment to be made is not unlike that of obtaining a fortune in a lottery, casting in our money, though there be ten thousand blanks to one prize.

Labor is the condition which God has imposed on us in every station of life.—There is nothing worth having that can be had without it, from the bread which the poor man wins with the sweat of his brow, to the sports by which man gets rid of his ennui. The only difference between them is, that the poor man labors to get his dinner—the rich man to get an appetite for his.

Let me entreat you then, my young friends, to be content with the station in life and society in which God has placed you. Take things as you find them, and make the most of them. Strive to elevate and ennoble your calling, and in this way elevate and ennoble yourselves. The husbandman is nature's nobleman.

Bear in mind that by industry and perseverance, and by application to your duties as farmers' boys, you will attain positions of honor and usefulness which you could not hope to reach in the bustling crowded city.

You have minds—many of you have good minds. Cultivate and improve them. Endeavor to acquire a good practical education. The many modern improvements in husbandry and farming implements and machinery afford you much leisure. Employ it in reading and study and self-improvement. Do not waste or idle away your time. The world is full of idlers and drones—be not you of the number. Bear in mind that learning, coupled with common sense and a well balanced judgment, will always command respect and influence. Remember that knowledge is power. S.

Choice Miscellany.

For the Gettysburg Compiler.

WHERE I FIRST MET MY WIFE.

Now, my dear, romantic reader, do not suppose that I met her at a ball, where she was irresistibly fascinated by my wondrous charms; my portly form, or my beautiful whiskers. Oh no; it was under no such circumstances, and if you will only curb your patience, I will tell you where I did meet her.

But first I will tell you who I am, which is essential in every story. My name is Frank Grey, the youngest of three children, and of rather a roving disposition. I spent my summers in the country, as I deemed it healthier there than at my father's mansion, in the city. While in the country, I devoted most of my time to hunting. One lovely morning in June, I was in a beautiful woods, where I saw the waving trees with their wreaths of leaves, and the free, wild birds twittered their songs over my head.

I was perfectly fascinated, when my quick eye caught sight of a hawk on a large oak tree. I took aim and shot; as I heard the report of the gun, I also heard the scream of a human being. I hastened to the spot from whence it came, and there before me lay a beautiful girl, who had been sitting under the tree from which I shot my prey. Oh, fatal omen, had I shot this innocent girl, who came here to pass a few hours by herself and to commune with the beauties of nature? But, she was only frightened; she soon revived, and I assisted her to her father's residence, which I learned was but a short distance from the woods. I lingered there until I saw the color return to her cheeks; then left, promising to return soon.

The acquaintance thus commenced soon ripened into friendship and friendship warmed into love.

Well, I do not mean to tell you all that happened at her father's house for a few weeks, for that only concerns Grace and myself.

But to gratify your curiosity, I will tell you I took home with me a bride who was none else than our Gracie Allison.

I was sorry at the time I shot so near to where she was, but now I am delighted at the thought, for I fear I would never have been so fortunate as to meet my own dear Grace. M.

Correspondence of the Gettysburg Compiler.

LETTER FROM WESTMORELAND.

NEAR IRWIN STATION,
June 8th, 1866.

MR. EDITOR,—Dear Sir:—Hoping that a few lines from this part of the world will not be uninteresting to the readers of your truly valuable paper, I have thought fit to write a few lines to inform you of matters and things here generally.

Irwin Station is a thriving town on the Penn'a. Central Railroad. It has two fine churches, one German Reformed and the other Methodist. It has also four very fine stores and some very pretty private residences. I do not know the population, but the town is incorporated.—There is an Odd Fellows' Society, and one also of the "Good Templars."

I was informed that there are from twenty to twenty-five thousand dollars paid out here every month by the coal companies. The miners make from three to five dollars per day digging coal, and some of them are getting rich at it. They are principally foreigners. The coal under the ground sells at from three to four hundred dollars per acre, and the owner retains and cultivates the surface as usual. This is a very hilly country, and there is plenty of coal under all the hills; indeed, we might say it is inexhaustible.

The prospect for a wheat crop is not very flattering. Several of the farmers have plowed up their wheat fields and sown them with oats. There have been several heavy frosts, which have been injurious to the corn, but the late rains have improved it considerably. The prices of produce are a little higher than they are in old Adams, but wages are much better here than there.

The salaries of teachers are better than they are in our county. Teachers get from forty to fifty dollars per month, and the term is six months in a year.

There are some very fine school houses in this township—indeed, all of them are. They are built on rising ground, and are surrounded by shade trees. It would be well if some of the Directors in Adams county would come out here and take pattern before building.

I was very glad to see by the COMPILER that our excellent Superintendent, Mr. Sheely, has been re-elected to the office which he has so admirably filled for the last three years. It was a compliment which he richly deserved.

I was also pleased to see the COMPILER come out in its new dress, and hope it will be patronized by the Democracy of Adams as it deserves.

I will not longer intrude upon your space, and therefore stop for the present—hoping that Hiester Clymer will be the next Governor. ADAMS.

Bill Arp is Called Before the Reconstruction Committee.---Suppressed Testimony.

To the Editor of the Metropolitan Record:

MR. EDITOR:—Murder will out, and so will evidence. Having seen Dan Rice's testimony before the Destruction Committee, I have felt sorter slighted because no mention aint been made of mine. I suppose it has been suppressed, but I am not to be hid out in obscurity. Our country is the special jury, and by and by this business will go up before it on appeal. The record must go up fair and complete, and therefore I'll take occasion to make public what I swore to. I said a good deal more than I can put down, Mr. Editor; and at times my language was considered impudent, but they thought that was all the better for their side; for it illustrated the rebellious spirit—I heard one of 'em say: "Let him go on—the ruling passion strong in death. He's good State's evidence."

When I was put on the stand old Boutwell swore me most fiercely and solemnly to speak the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth; and I observed that he was then entertaining about a quart of double rectified, and it looked like it had soured on his stomach. Old Blow was settin off on one side with a memorandum book, gettin ready to note down some "garbled extracts."

Old Iron works was chairman, and when he nodded his Republican head, old Boutwell says he: "Your name is Arp, I believe, sir."

"So called," says I.

"You reside in the State of Georgia, do you?"

"I can't say exactly," says I. "I live in Rome, right in the fork of two Injun rivers."

"In the State of Georgia," says he fiercely.

"In a state of uncertainty about that," says I. "We don't know whether Georgia is a State or not. I would like for you to state yourself, if you know. The state of the country requires that this matter should be settled, and I will proceed to state"—

"Never mind, sir," says he. "How old are you, Mr. Arp?"

"That depends on circumstances," says I. "I don't know whether to count the last five years or not. During the war your folks said that a State couldn't secede, but that while she was in a state of rebellion she ceased to exist. Now you say we got out, and we shan't get back again until 1870. A man's age has got something to do with his rights—and if we are not to vote, I don't think we ought to count the time. That's about as near as I can come to my age, sir."

"Well, sir," says he, "are you familiar with the political sentiments of the citizens of your State."

"Got no citizens yet, sir, that we know of. I will thank you to speak of us as people."

"Well, sir," says he, "I'll humor your obstinacy. Are the people of your State"—

"Don't speak of it as a State, sir, if you please. I'm on oath now, and you must excuse me for being particular. Call it a 'section.'"

"Mr. Arp, are the people of your section sufficently humbled and repentant to come back into the Union on such terms as we may think proper to impose?"

"Not much they aint," says I. "I don't think they are prepared for it yet. They wouldn't voluntarily go it blind against your hand. They say the deal wasn't fair, and you've marked the cards and stole the trumps! but at the same time they don't care a darn what you do. They've become indifferent, and don't care nothing about your Guy Fawkes business. I mean no insult to you, gentlemen, but I swore to tell you the whole truth. Our people aint a noticein you, only out of curiosity. They don't expect anything decent, or honorable, or noble from you, and they've gone to diggin, and plowin, and plantin, and raisin boy children."

Right here the man with a memorandum scratched down a garbled extract, "and old Boutwell" says he: "What do you mean by that sir? What inference do you intend?"

"I'm statin facts," says I. "You must draw your own inferences. They are raisin boy children. Any harm about that? Any treason? Can't a man raise boy children? Perhaps you'd like to amend the Constitution and stop it. Old Pharoah tried to stop it among the Israelites, but it didn't pay. He finally caught the dropsy in the Red Sea. We are raisin boy children for the fun of it. They are a good thing to have in the house, as Mr. Toodles would say."

"Mr. Arp, are not the feelings of your people very bitter towards the north?"

"I beg your pardon, sir, but you'll have to split the question, or else I'll have to split the answer. Our people have a very high regard for honorable men, brave men, noble-hearted men; and there's a heap of 'em north, sir, and there's a heap of widows and orphans there we are sorry for; but as for this here Radical party, they look upon 'em like they was hyenas a scratchin up the dead for a livin. It's as natural to hate 'em as it is to kill a snake. It's utterly impossible for me to tell the strength, and length, and hight, depth, and breadth of their contempt for that party. They look upon a Radical as—as—as—well, as a beggar on horseback—a buzzard sailin round a dead carkle—a suck-egg dog creeping up to the tail of a dead lion. They talk of hirin Brownlow to abuse 'em, to use language on 'em like he did a few years ago when he spoke against Payne. If they do hire Brownlow he'll spatter 'em, he'll daub 'em all over, and slime 'em and slobber on 'em about right; and it will stick, for the pores are open, and their morals spongy. I'd like to stand off about ten rods and hear him spread himself. It would be worse than a squirt-gun full of cow slop, and I have no doubt would give general satisfaction."

"That's sufficient, sir," says old Boutwell. "Ef it was in their power to do so, would your people renew the fight."

"Not unless they could fight the Radicals all alone, and all the world agree to hands off. Even then there wouldn't be no fight, for we couldn't catch you."

"What do your people say upon the subject of negro equality?"

"They say it's a lie, sir—it don't exist by nature, and never can in practice. Folks were not created free and equal. That may be a theoretical truth, but it's always been a practical lie. There's grades of society everywhere. There's men I give the sidewalk to, and there's men that gives it to me. There's men that I vote, and men that vote me, and the grades go up, up, up, step by step, from my sort to Mr. Davis, and Mr. Stephens, and General Lee, and Howell Cobb, and Ben Hill, and their sorts; and then again it goes from me down, down, down, to the niggers, and the Republicans and Radicals, and that's as low as they run. There an't no equality, and you can't make one. We'll vote the niggers certain. I'll vote Tip, and Tip, s a 'head center.' He'll vote about forty, and the first thing you know we'll elect seven big black, greasy niggers to Congress. We'll do it certain—seven of 'em eighteen carats strong with African musk. The other rebel States will do the same thing, and you'll have about fifty or 'em to draw seats with, and you can all stick your legs upon your desks together, and swap lies and vermin, and be shampooned at the same shop, and the fair sexes can sit together in the galleries and mix odors, and fan their scent about promiscuous. We'll give you a full benefit of your Civil Rights bill, see if we don't. You go on—play your cards. We are bidin our time. We are payin your taxes and your duties and back rations for 1864, and licenses, and your infernal revenue, and obeyin your laws without havin any hand in makin 'em, and we are cut off from pensions and public lands; and you sold a poor man's still in my county the other day because he couldn't pay your tax on some peach brandy he stilled for his neighbors two years ago; and soon you'll be sellin the land for the tax; and you're tryin your best to play the devil generally; but you'll catch it in the long run. See if you don't. Talk about Fenians.—When the good men of the north and the south all get together, they'll walk over the track so fast that you won't have time to get out of the way. You'll subside into obscurity, and your children will deny that their daddies ever belonged to such a party. Excuse, me gentlemen, but I'm a little excited. Five cents a pound on cotton will excite anybody that makes it. Tax on industry—on sweat and toil. Protective tariffs for Pennsylvania, and five cents a pound tax on Southern cotton—half its average worth and your folks will manage some way or other to steal the other half. My advice to you is to quit this foolishness, and begin to travel the only road to peace."

Old Blow couldn't keep up with his garbled extracts.

"What makes the President so popular at the South?"

"Contrast, sir—contrast. The more he an't like your party, the more popular he is. He would treat us about right, I reckon, if you would let him alone, but you bedevil him so that some times he don't unde stand himself. I don't think he knew for a while whether his peace Proclamation restored the writ of habeas corpus or not. But do you go on and impeach him, and that will bring matters to a focus. I'll bet you'd be in Fort Delaware in a week, and the southern members be here in their seats, and they'll look round at the political wreck, and ruin, and plunder, and stealage that's been goin on, and they might exclaim, in the language of the poet

"Who's pin here since I'sh pin gone?"

"Mr. Arp, suppose we should have a war with England or France, what would the rebels do?"

"They'd follow General Lee, and General Johnston, and Longstreet, and Bragg, and old Bory. My opinion is, that General Lee would head the Union army, and General Grant would be his chief of Staff, and General Buell would rank mighty high, and"——

"What would you do with General Sherman?"

"Sorry you mentioned him. We'd have to hire him, I reckon, as a camp fiddler, and make him sing 'Hail Columbia' by firelight, as a warning to the boys how mean it is to burn cities and towns and make war upon defenceless women and children. No, sir, our boys wouldn't fight under no such."

At this time the man with the memorandum put down some more garbled extracts.

"Do you think, Mr. Arp, that if the South should ever hold the balance of power, they would demand pay for their negroes?"

"I can't say, sir. But I don't think the South has lost anything that way.—We got their labor before the war for their vittels and clothes and doctor's bills, and we get it now for about the same. It's all settled down that way, and your Bureau couldent help it. The only difference is in the distribution. Some of us don't own as many as we used to, but everybody has got a nigger or two now, and they'll all vote 'em or turn 'em off. A nigger that wouldent vote as I told him shouldent black my boots."

At this time the Committee looked at one another, seemin to be bothered and astonished. Garbled extracts were put down with a vim.

"Mr. Boutwell," says he, "Mr. Chairman, I think, sir, we are about through with the witness. I think, sir, his testimony settles the question as to what we ought to do with southern traitors!"

The chairman gave me a Republican nod, and remarked, "Yes, sir, I think we do. The scoundrels burnt my iron works."

Whereupon I retired, having given general satisfaction.

Yours truly, BILL ARP.

A CURIOUS CALIFORNIA STORY.

The Napa county (California) Register says:

"A family residing in the Napa valley has within a few years past, lost five of its members by death. By some curious coincidence, a friend residing in San Francisco, has, at each decease, been on a visit to the family, and the fact has been so remarkable as to attract notice, and, in the minds of some, create a superstitious dread of him. The year following the third death, the gentleman paid a visit to the family, and the lady of the house said in a jocular manner on first accosting him, "What misfortune do you now bring?" Apparently in good health at the time, in an hour after she was a corpse. Recently he paid his accustomed annual visit, and a daughter-in-law, who had been lingering with consumption for some time, died soon after his arrival. No blame is attached to him as an instrument in causing these deaths, yet that this singular fatality to the family has been attendant upon his periodical visits is most remarkable. In Italy the superstitious people would believe him to possess the fatal gift of the "Evil Eye."

☞ The geographical extent of the eleven Southern States now subjected to taxation and Government control, but denied representation by the Disunion revolutionists of New England and their subsidized followers from other States, is 722,935 square miles. They have 5,487 square miles greater extent than England, France, Spain, Portugal, the Germanic Confederation, Austria and Prussia, combined.

☞ "General Grant is universally looked to as the candidate of the Union party for the next Presidency," says a Disunion newspaper. That may possibly be, but in the language of President Johnson—"the Union party is not the party of the radicals."

☞ Mr. Miller, a radical member from the Harrisburg District of Pennsylvania, in his speech in the House on Wednesday, urged his co-laborers to hurry up their business, as this might be the last Republican Congress that would meet for some time, if not forever.

☞ Hiester Clymer believes that this is "the white man's government." Every vote given to him will be an expression in favor of the supremacy of the white race, and in opposition to all attempts to degrade the white men of the country.

☞ "Give us the run of the Treasury till 1780," the Radicals say, "and you can take what we leave there at that time." In these few words the Hartford Times epitomises the policy of the Radicals as unfolded in their Constitutional amendment.

☞ The Chicago Tribune abuses General Dix through a column article, because he supports the policy of President Johnson.

DEMOCRATIC MASS CONVENTION.

We find the following in the last Reading Gazette, and give it place with much pleasure. The State Central Committee thus makes a fair start in the great work of redeeming this good old WHITE MAN'S Commonwealth from the misrule of scheming corruptionists and negro-equality fanatics, and we doubt not that the call will be responded to by thousands upon thousands of the conservative masses of the State. Reading is not only the "Gibraltar of Democracy," which is much in its favor, but it is central, and accessible by railroad from all points. The turn-out may therefore be anticipated as immense, and it is hoped that Adams will be largely represented. All who may go will, we are sure, be pleased with the excursion; and they will have, beside, the satisfaction of having participated in one of the grandest political demonstrations ever had in Pennsylvania,

The Reading Gazette says:

The Democratic State Central Committee have resolved to call a Mass Convention of the friends of Johnson and Clymer in the Eastern and Middle counties of Pennsylvania, to be held in the city of Reading, on Wednesday, the 18th of July next. It is the design of the Committee to open the State campaign in Old Berks, the citadel of Democracy, and the home of Hiester Clymer, our distinguished candidate for Governor, by a monster demonstration, which will give a forward impetus to the cause of the Union and Constitutional Liberty throughout the State. The Democratic County Committee and Democratic City Club have been appointed to act in conjunction with the State Committee in making arrangements for the Convention, and have already initiated the necessary preparations. Excursion tickets will be issued by the several Railroad Companies at reduced fares, to accommodate the masses who may desire to attend; and a number of eminent speakers from abroad will deliver addresses. All the indications favor an immense turn-out.

The Lancaster Intelligencer remarks:

This ought to be, and we think it will be, the largest political meeting ever held in Pennsylvania. The Democracy of Berks will turn out in great force, and large delegations may be expected from twenty or thirty other counties. The facilities for reaching Reading by railroad are very great, so great, indeed, that from such distant points as Chambersburg, Huntingdon, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre, &c., delegations may go to Reading in the forenoon and return to the point from which they started in the evening. The populous counties that lie around Berks—such as Lancaster, Chester, Dauphin, Lebanon, Schuylkill, Lehigh, Northampton, Montgomery, Bucks and Philadelphia—will pour out their tens of thousands. We hope every conservative voter in Lancaster county who can possibly arrange to leave home on that day, will be present at this great meeting.

GOOD NEWS! GOOD NEWS!

The New York Tribune concedes heavy Democratic gains in Nebraska, whilst the telegraph announces the result in Oregon so close as to be in doubt. In Washington Territory the Democrats have carried nine counties certainly, and probably four others. The ground swell has set in!

☞ Both Houses of Congress have passed the Destruction Committee's amendment to the Constitution, by the requisite two-thirds, and it will now go to the States for their action. The Republican party has thus made the issue, that in the States which will not allow the negroes to vote, the number of Congressmen must be decreased. The Radicals are determined that the negro shall be brought up to the white standard, and this amendment is to be a leading measure in the accomplishment of the degrading work. What say the white freemen of Pennsylvania to all this? Will they endorse it? The next election must tell.

☞ Recently over nine millions of gold was shipped from New York to Europe in one week, the largest amount ever sent out in the same length of time.

And yet our neighbor of the Sentinel has not a word of comment. Years ago, under Democratic Administrations, the transmission of gold to Europe was the burden of his weekly complaint. Were fifty or a hundred thousand dollars sent, the most direful consequences to the country were predicted, and all sorts of hard names applied to the Democrats in consequence. But now, when the evil has reached over a million a day, our neighbor is dumb!

Strange, isn't it?

☞ Messrs. Meyers & Mengel, of the Bedford Gazette, will commence, on the 4th of July, the publication of a campaign paper, to be called "The Climber." That it will be a spicy, able and effective sheet, all who know anything about the Gazette will readily believe.

☞ A White Man's Bureau, it is rumored, has been thought of by some of the "Copperheads" in Congress; but Thaddeus Stevens thinks that it would cost too much, and benefit a very unworthy class of persons. That settles the question.

THE KIND OF ORGANIZATION WE NEED.

The Democracy should organize clubs immediately in every election district in the State. The object of these clubs should be organization. There is no special necessity for much speech making just yet. That will be done in due time and done with effect. When the appeal comes to be made to the people of Pennsylvania on the great issues now agitating the nation, we have no doubt as to the response which will come swelling up from the great popular heart. The stump will be more potent than it has ever been before. The Radicals cannot defend their policy, and it will be repudiated with scorn and loathing. We shall have the masses with us in sentiment.

But enthusiasm alone never yet accomplished great results. We need organization, close, perfect, working organization. There is much other work to be done besides making and listening to speeches. In the New England States and in New York the Republicans have had an efficient organization for years, which reached to every school district in those States. Every voter has been registered and marked as with them, against them, or doubtful. They could count up and ascertain very nearly what the result would be before an election occurred. Such organization as that is a most potent engine of power. That is just what the Democracy must do in Pennsylvania and elsewhere, if they would win. The time has gone by when elections can be carried without organization. We have a clear Democratic majority of votes in Pennsylvania if they are all polled. To do that, must constitute the chief work of the Democracy.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY!

The first election under the city charter of Scranton, Luzerne county, took place on the 6th inst., and resulted in a Democratic victory. The Radicals were confident of success. All their power was put in requisition, and money contributed from abroad to aid them in gaining possession of the new city. But they were signally defeated. The majority on some portions of the Democratic ticket reached over three hundred and fifty, on a vote larger than ever before polled.—The people are tired of the Radical policy. They desire peace and attention to the interests of white men, not discord and the bestowal of all legislative action in favor of the negroes. This fact is observable in all portions of the State. Not an election takes place but the Democratic vote is increased. The example of the gallant Democracy of Scranton will be followed throughout the State, and the result will be its full and entire redemption at the coming fall election.

BORDER DAMAGES.

In the lower House of Congress, on Monday last, Hon. A. H. Coffroth introduced a resolution instructing the Committee on Claims to report a bill to authorize the appointment of Commissioners, with such restrictions as the Committee may deem proper, to ascertain what damages the people of this Congressional district suffered in consequence of rebel invasions, with a view to legislation for the payment of the damages sustained.

Mr. Delano moved to lay the resolution on the table, but withdrew the motion when Mr. Coffroth changed it to one of inquiry simply.

Debate then arising, the resolution went over under the rule.

☞ A friend living in Ridgway, Elk county, informs the Patriot & Union that upon a recent visit to Blair county he made the acquaintance of a staunch old soldier, who, with his two sons, served throughout the late war and received honorable discharges. He declared that they fought for the Union, not for the negro; and that as negro suffrage is now made the issue by the Republican party, both himself, his sons, and three other soldiers—neighbors of his—were all determined to vote for Hiester Clymer—believing, as they did, that every vote cast for John W. Geary would be a vote for the speedy establishment of negro suffrage in Pennsylvania. We are not surprised at this, although greatly pleased to hear it. Every soldier and civilian who reads and thinks and makes a proper use of his perceptive faculties, must come to the same conclusion. It is these facts, among others, which make us feel more than reasonably sure that Mr. Clymer will be elected by a very handsome majority.

☞ The Disunion press have been howling for some time at the President about a contemplated design to liberate Jeff. Davis on parole. It appears now that Horace Greeley was one of the parties to the effort to effect the release of Davis, and that, with five others, he signed a bail bond for that purpose. The President had nothing to do with it; the matter being entirely in the hands of Judge Underwood, who, it appears, refused to accept bail on Monday. It is authoritatively stated that the President refused to take any such responsibility. Will the Disunion press stop their howling now, since the head and front of all their organs has gone forward and used his personal efforts and pledged his name and money for the release of the "arch fiend?"

☞ The Clarion Democrat says that at a large Johnson meeting held during Court week, at which Hiester Clymer was heartily endorsed, a number of the officers were prominent gentlemen who had not before acted with the Democratic party. It declares that hundreds of Republicans throughout the county have openly declared their intention to repudiate the Radical doctrines and their candidates. As it is in Clarion, so it will be throughout the State before October.

☞ The Democrats of the Erie district are said to be talking of running Dan. Rice for Congress. The Republicans would not dare to object to him on the ground of his being a clown, so long as they keep Lowry in the State Senate.

☞ Fenian demonstrations against Canada have been discontinued, and the Fenian soldiers returned to their homes, the U. S. Government furnishing them transportation.

☞ The Rump Senate, on Monday of last week, passed a resolution looking to the erection of a new Executive mansion. The name by which the present one is known—the White House—is distasteful to the Radicals.

THE PITTSBURG CHEAT.

As we expected, the Pittsburg Soldiers' State Convention, held on the 5th inst., proved to be a regular Radical conclave. Indeed, the call for the meetings of Soldiers to send Delegates, was only published in the Disunion papers, and the meetings were packed with the worst kind of Geary partisans. In Cumberland county the Democratic and Conservative soldiers had a majority of six to one over the Geary men, yet the majority Delegates were refused admittance to the Convention, and the minority delegation, elected by a small body of seceders, admitted. A Clymer man in the Berks county delegation was insulted and forced to leave the Convention, to escape mob violence. This circumstance is boastfully published in Forney's report of the proceedings, which appeared in the Press. These facts, of themselves, show that it was no place for soldiers who love their whole country, who support the Union policy of President Johnson, and who are opposed to negro suffrage and negro equality.

The Convention was as Radical as the most intense negro equality disunionists could desire. The destructive measures of the Rump Congress were fully endorsed, the President was passed by with silent contempt, and Geary was lauded to the skies. Of course, the Democrats who went as delegates to this coal-black affair, took no part in its proceedings. Indeed, as soon as their political sentiments were known, they were insultingly told that they had no business there, and ordered to leave! But the end is not yet. The thousands of "boys in blue" who fought for the Union and not for the Negro, will soon make their voices heard for Johnson and Clymer in a Mass Convention of their own, which will sink this mongrel Pittsburg gathering into insignificance.

THE SOLDIERS OF JUNIATA.

At a meeting of the "Mifflintown and Patterson Soldiers' Clymer Club," held in the borough of Patterson, Saturday evening, June 9th, 1866, the following preamble and resolutions were passed unanimously:

WHEREAS, At the so-called Soldiers' State Convention held at Pittsburg, on Tuesday, June 5, 1866, resolutions were passed endorsing all the measures of the present Rump Congress;

And whereas, Said Convention forgot the true interests of the country and the soldiers by endorsing the nomination of John W. Geary for Governor; therefore,

Resolved, That we do not recognize the Pittsburg Convention as speaking the sentiments of the majority of the soldiers of Pennsylvania, and we do most emphatically repudiate their proceedings.

Resolved, That we recommend to the Johnson Clymer Soldiers of Pennsylvania the holding of a State Convention in the city of READING, on WEDNESDAY, the FIRST DAY OF AUGUST next, for the purpose of placing ourselves before the people of Pennsylvania on a true Union and Constitutional platform; each representative district to elect five delegates for every representative elected therein to the State Legislature.

ANOTHER SOLDIERS' CONVENTION.

We learn that a number of honorably discharged soldiers from the counties of Berks, Cumberland, York, Perry, Lehigh and Fayette, recently held a meeting, and resolved to call a State convention of all soldiers who fought for the Union, who are opposed to negro suffrage, and who are in favor of President Johnson and Hiester Clymer. The proposed convention will be held some time in the month of July or beginning of August, but the exact time and place and all necessary arrangements will be agreed upon at a subsequent preliminary meeting of "the boys in blue," to be held in Harrisburg, on the 28th day of June, at 3 o'clock P. M. It is desired that as much publicity as possible should be given to the notice of this preliminary meeting at Harrisburg on the 28th instant, and we have been requested to call the attention of the Democratic and Conservative press of the State to this notice.—Age.

POOR GEARY.

It is a most remarkable fact, that of the thousands who shouldered their muskets and left Philadelphia to engage in the late war, we have not yet heard of or spoke with a corporal's guard who intend to vote for Geary. They all have the same opinion of him, and that is certainly not a very enviable one. And what is still more remarkable, those who originally went out with our modern Bombastes, and those who were unfortunate enough to be placed under his command during the war, are the most bitter in their denunciations of him. It is only those who do not know the man, that may be induced to vote for him. If, however, the Abolition candidate was really a soldier, and could actually produce the record of his prowess, the men—or rather the military apologies—he has around him, headed by the notoriously incompetent Josh. Owens, would politically damn any man, though he were as pure as snow and as brave as Hector. Only think of it! Geary and Owens; Owens and Geary!—Sunday Mercury.

White Men, How do You Like the Pictures?—The following item was clipped from the Indianapolis Herald of a few days since:

"A soldier, sick and destitute, is now lying at the Globe Hotel. They were talking of sending him to the poor house. If there is any loyalty and patriotism left in Indianapolis, that means anything more than words," &c.

And the following from a Washington Associated Press dispatch, lately:

"General Howard has begun the distribution of the $25,000 appropriated by Congress for the relief of destitute and suffering freedmen in this district. A board has been appointed, with Dr. Kelburn, chief of the surgical bureau, as president, and the city divided into two districts, with a superintendent for each."

If the poor, sick and destitute soldier had only possessed a black hide, there would have been no occasion to send him to a poor house, but he would have had his wants looked after by Generals, medical bureaus, and superintendents. Pleasant for the niggers—how do the whites like the arrangement?

☞ One of the beauties of the Freedmen's Bureau is set forth in the following official communication:

The issue of white sugar to dependent freedmen and others was in obedience to an order from Brevet Brigadier General H. T. Clark, Assistant Commissary General, a copy of which is now on file in the office of the Depot Commissary, at Newbern, North Carolina.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
ISAAC A. ROSEKRANS,
Captain Co. D., U. S. V.

Idleness and "white sugar" for negroes, taxes, hard labor, and brown sugar for white men, is the programme of the Radical party. The working men of the Northern States are required to pay millions per year for the support of the Freedmen's Bureau, and the above extract shows in what manner "the money goes."

TOWN AND COUNTY AFFAIRS.

AGRICULTURAL PREMIUMS.—The Adams County Agricultural Society offers the following premiums: $25 for the best five acres of wheat; $15 for the best five acres of rye; $15 for the best five acres of oats; $25 for the best five acres of corn; and $10 for the best acre of potatoes. Proof of accurate measurement of lands and products will be required. Messrs. Abraham Krise, of P., Wm. Wible and Elisha Penrose have been appointed a committee to take the whole subject in charge.

MOWING MATCH.—The trial of Mowers here on Saturday created considerable interest, and was largely attended. Seven machines entered the field. The Judges (Messrs. Moses Hartman, Washington Lott and David Shriver) decided the Hoffheins & Shireman machine to be first in the order of merit, the Ohio second, and the Excelsior third. We have no time for further details.

VISITORS TO THE BATTLE-FIELD.—There are visitors to the Gettysburg Battle-field, from different parts of the country, almost every day. Last week, however, there was an unusual "rush." Among the arrivals were Major General Hancock, wife, and two sons, also the General's father, Hon. W. B. F. Hancock; Gen. Crawford, Gen. Steinard, Gen. Humphreys, Gen. Morgan, Gen. Parke, Gen. Morris, P. F. Rothermal, the artist, Col. Batchelder, Hon. John P. Kennedy and wife, and scores of others.

On Tuesday evening Gen. Hancock's party was serenaded by the Gettysburg Band at the Eagle Hotel. The General, Mr. Kennedy, Gen. Steinard, Col. Batchelder, and W. B. F. Hancock, appeared, and returned their thanks for the compliment in brief and pertinent speeches.

WASN'T WANTED.—During the serenade on Tuesday evening, so we are informed, McConaughy made his way to the hotel veranda, among the distinguished strangers, and some one in the crowd supposing that he was "spiling for a speech," undertook to start a call for him. This (McConaughy being such an insufferable bore to the Gettysburg people) was the signal for a general movement to leave, when another individual, fearing that the "bogus" wouldn't take that hint, thought of the happy dodge of calling for Burns. "Burns!" "Burns!" was instantly yelled from all parts of the crowd, and it was so vociferously and persistently adhered to as to "squelch out" of McConaughy all hope of squeezing in a speech on the inviting occasion. Burns was not in town, which McConaughy no doubt supposed the crowd ought to know; but know or not, the calls for "Burns!" were kept up until even McConaughy himself saw that he was not wanted—and retreated into the hotel.

We are told by several who were present that the affair was broadly comical, especially to those who saw all the points in the "contest."

FOUR PAINTINGS.—We understand that Col. Batchelder has secured the eminent artist, Walker, to paint four pictures of the Battle of Gettysburg, but have not heard what particular points in the struggle will be selected for the subjects. Sketches were last week taken for the work, we are told. Something grand may be expected.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Our enterprising townsman, Samuel Herbst, is having the Herbert property, on Chambersburg street, considerably altered and thoroughly repaired. It will no doubt look "as good as new" when finished.

Jesse Bucher is having his house, on East High street, well "brushed up," with fresh paint, &c.

The building for the Orphans' Home, near the Cemeteries, is to be considerably enlarged at an early day.

As an evidence of the spirit of improvement now prevailing, it may be mentioned that Mr. Stallsmith has work for half a dozen additional carpenters, and desires to employ them immediately.

PAINFUL COINCIDENCE.—Samuel Wolf, Esq., (one of the Commissioners of the county,) a few weeks ago had one of his legs broken by the kick of a horse. The fact was stated in this paper at the time, and we have now to announce the somewhat singular and very painful coincidence that his brother, Isaac Wolf, Jr., of Berwick township, has also had a leg broken. He was engaged in felling a tree, which, in its descent, caught the leg, breaking and crushing it in a shocking manner. Medical aid was at once had, and he is doing well.

THE GETTYSBURG BAND, under Prof. Gundrum, promises to be one of the best in the country. It is making the kind of progress which is sure to result in proficiency in all the parts, without which good music cannot be produced. We hope the Band will be out often these beautiful evenings.

NEW RAILROAD BRIDGE.—Mr. Elias Rhodes, of New Oxford, has contracted for the building of a new Bridge on the Gettysburg Railroad, across Little Conewago, a short distance west of New Oxford. He is to receive $2,550 for the job, and has already commenced operations. The running of the trains will not be interfered with during the progress of the work.

SUDDEN DEATH.—On the 3rd inst., Mrs. Elizabeth Peters, wife of Mr. Henry Peters, of Petersburg, this county, died very suddenly from an attack of apoplexy. Upon stepping into the house from the yard, she almost instantly fell to the floor and expired. Her age was about 65 years and her health previously good.

MAD DOGS.—There is considerable anxiety in several sections of the county in reference to mad dogs. Too much vigilance cannot be exercised in the matter, and all suspected dogs should be dispatched without delay.

NEW SUBSCRIBERS are coming in every day—which we look upon as a healthy political sign. The more the better. Push them along from every quarter of the county.

☞ Capt. Edward Welty, formerly of this county, has been admitted to the practice of the law in Venango county.

THE SOLDIERS' MONUMENT.

In obedience to the call of the Chairman, the Executive Committee met in the Arbitration Room, June 9th, 1866. J. H. White was elected Secretary of the Committee.

The Chairman reported the following gentlemen as having accepted their appointments:

Col. W. W. Stewart, Lt. Col. E. G. Fahnestock, Maj. H. S. Benner, Maj. Robert Bell, Capt. J. H. Plank, Capt. James Mickley, Capt. Theo. C. Norris, Capt. E. McGinley, Capt. W. H. Brogunier, Adj. J. H. White, Lt. Jas. R. Hersh, Lt. Samuel H. Eicholtz.

And the following as having declined:

Lt. George Wilson, and Lt. George K. Duttera.

On motion George W. Mullen was substituted for George Wilson and Rufus C. Duttera for George K. Duttera. Lt. Col. E. G. Fahnestock was then elected Treasurer of the Committee.

On motion it was Resolved, That, for the purpose of facilitating the operations of the Committee, the county be divided into 11 districts, according to schedule hereto annexed, which shall severally be under the charge of a member of the Committee, and which shall report to said member for instructions, and said member shall have authority to fill vacancies which may occur in said sub-committee.

That the Sub-Committee shall make the subscriptions cash as far as practicable, and that all moneys collected be paid to the member having charge of the district, and by him to the treasurer of the Executive Committee.

On motion it was Resolved, That Aaron Sheely be authorized to make such arrangements as he may think best for securing the interest of all the Schools in the county in this enterprise.

The Committee adjourned to meet again at the call of the Chairman.

J. H. WHITE, Secretary.

The following Canvassing Committees have been appointed, with the member of the Executive Committee assigned to each district attached:

Gettysburg, Cumberland and Mountjoy.—Levi Spangler, Harrison Lott, Harvey Cobean, Henry Bream and Capt. John Horner.

Member of Executive Com.—

Littlestown, Germany and Union.—Wm. McSherry, Ephraim Myers, Dr. E. F. Shorb, John Sellers and Samuel P. Young.

Member of Ex. Com.—Rufus C. Duttera.

Oxford, Berwick Borough and Berwick Township.—Paul Hersh, J. Lanius Himes, F. C. Heltzel, Henry Wiest, H. F. Kohler, Dr. D. S. Pfeffer and George Wolf.

Member of Ex. Com.—Lt. J. R. Hersh.

Huntington, Latimore and Tyrone.—John C. Brandon, W. S. Jobe, F. N. W. Bowers, J. A. Wierman, W. F. Bonner, I. D. Worley, Conrad E. Myers, Lt. J. S. Chronister, Lt. J. C. Pittenturf, John F. Houck, J. Myers and Ezra Welcome.

Member of Ex. Com.—Col. W. W. Stewart.

Straban, Reading and Hamilton.—J. W. Cress, John Benner, John N. Boyer, John F. Felty, Edward Moritz, Oliver Neely, Howard Dicks, Dr. C. E. Goldsborough, Leonard Slaybaugh, Lt. J. Q. Schwartz, J. W. Meisenhelder, George D. Binder and Henry Stock.

Member of Ex. Com.—Maj. Robert Bell.

Conowago and Mountpleasant.—Michael Reily, Lt. J. I. McKinney, Capt. J. E. Miller, Jacob Lott, H. Brough, and John E. Smith.

Member of Ex. Com.—Capt. W. H. Brogunier.

Member of Ex. Com.—Capt. E. McGinley.

Highland.—Isaac Hereter, D. Weigle, Christian Byers and John H. Dubs.

Member of Ex. Com.—Capt. James Mickley.

Franklin.—Robert McCleaf, George E. Plank, Wm. Bell, James Rebert and J. Marks.

Member of Ex. Com.—Capt. J. H. Plank.

Menallen.—Lt. W. Morrison, Lt. G. C. Carson, Lt. Isaac Miller, Chrysostum Eppelman and Cornelius Christ.

Member of Ex. Com.—Capt. G. W. Mullen.

Butler.—Lt. P. L. Houck, Israel Shank, J. Singleton Myers and Solomon Orner.

Member of Ex. Com.—Lt. Samuel Eicholtz.

☞ A few appointments are yet to be made for the townships of Germany and Union.

A WORD TO HOUSE-KEEPERS.—We were shown, a few days ago, through the extensive Wareroom and Factory for the manufacture of Tin and Sheet Iron Ware, of Col. C. H. Buehler, in this place, and were surprised to observe the energy he exhibits in prosecuting the several branches of his business and the marks of enterprise visible on every hand. There is no article of Tin or Sheet Iron Ware that house-keepers should have that cannot be found in this establishment. He manufactures on a large scale, and can afford to sell cheap. His stock of stoves is as full as ever, embracing every style in use, whilst the Coal and Lumber business claims a due share of attention. House-keepers, as well as Builders, will be amply repaid by visiting this establishment, whether they want to buy or not.

Pensions.—A new pension bill has just passed the Senate. It provides that $25 a month shall be paid to persons who have been permanently injured while in the military or naval service of the country and are incapacitated for labor in consequence; $20 a month to those who are not obliged to have continual care and attention; and $15 a month to those who have lost a leg, arm or hand. The bill expressly forbids the transfer, sale, mortgage or other disposition of pension claims to second parties. It also provides for payment of a pension to a minor child or children of a widow entitled to pension, if she is deemed unqualified to take care of her children, in consequence of immoral conduct. This bill, which is supplementary to other pension laws, is yet to be acted on by the House.

☞ Ever since Mr. Clymer's nomination the Geary organs have been inventing canards about his withdrawal—the nomination of another candidate, &c.—This only goes to show Mr. Clymer's strength and to prove how desperate the Disunionists consider Geary's cause with Clymer on the track. The wish is father to the thought in all their blather about Clymer's withdrawal.

☞ The last Gettysburg Compiler contains a list of the Confederate dead still having legible marks, on the Gettysburg battle-field, furnished by Dr. J. W. C. O'Neal, which will be of great interest, and perhaps service, to the friends and relatives of the thousands of misguided men who fell on that bloody field of carnage.—Hanover Spectator, (Republican.)

☞ The great influx of negroes into Baltimore has opened the eyes of the Baltimoreans, who now declare them a nuisance.

☞ On the 10th inst., a man named Nicholas Frisinger, residing at the Codorus Foundry, Codorus township, York county, died from drinking ten glasses of lager beer in ten minutes.

A Single Box of Brandreth's Pills

Contains more vegetable cathartic matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world besides; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first lesson of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known, sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Pain in the Head, Heartburn, Pain in the Breast-bone, Sudden Faintness and Costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines.

Cholera, Diarrhœa, and Dysentery!

A cure is warranted by DR. TOBIAS' celebrated VENETIAN LINIMENT, if used when first taken by persons of temperate habits. This medicine has been known in the United States over 20 years. Thousands have used it, and found it never failed to cure any complaint for which it was recommended, and all those who first tried it, are now never without it. In the Cholera of 1848, Dr. Tobias attended 40 cases and lost 4, being called in too late to do any good.

DIRECTIONS.—Take a teaspoonful in a wine-glass of water every half hour for two hours, and rub the abdomen and extremities well with the Liniment. To allay the thirst, take a lump of ice in the mouth, about the size of a marble every ten minutes. It is warranted perfectly innocent to take internally. Sold by all druggists, price 40 and 80 cents. Depot, 53 Courtlan t St., New York.

Dead Heads.

Or, in other words, heads whose once glorious locks have WITHERED AND WHITENED, can in a few moments be restored with all their YOUTHFUL ATTRACTIONS, by a single application of that wonderful talisman,

CHRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE.

Dr. Marshall's Catarrh Snuff.

This snuff has thoroughly proved itself to be the best article known for curing the Catarrh, Cold in the Head and Headache. It has been found an excellent remedy in many cases of Sore Eyes.—Deafness has been removed by it, and Hearing has often been greatly improved by its use.

It is fragrant in the handkerchief, and GIVES IMMEDIATE RELIEF to the dull heavy pains caused by diseases of the head. The sensations after using it are delightful and invigorating. It opens and purges out all obstructions, strengthens the glands, and gives a healthy action to the parts affected.

More than Thirty Years' of sale and use of "Dr. Marshall's Catarrh and Headache Snuff," has proved its great value for all the common diseases of the head, and at this moment stands higher than ever before.

It is recommended by many of the best physicians, and is used with great success and satisfaction everywhere.

Read the Certificates of Wholesale Druggists in 1854: The undersigned, having for many years been acquainted with "Dr. Marshall's Catarrh and Headache Snuff," and sold it in our wholesale trade, cheerfully state, that we believe it to be equal, in every respect, to the recommendations given of it for the cure of Catarrhal Affections, and that it is decidedly the best article we have ever known for all common diseases of the Head.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills

Are the most perfect purgative which we are able to produce or which we think has ever yet been made by anybody. Their effects have abundantly shown to the community how much they excel the ordinary medicines in use. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart a healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of everybody, but also formidable and dangerous diseases. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and, being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. They have been made which surpass belief, were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character, as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of our remedies, while others have sent us the assurance of their conviction that, our Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of our afflicted, suffering fellow men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis our American Almanac, containing directions for the use and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints:—

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the bowels and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Diseases which require an evacuant medicine. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body, or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations which they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S and take no others. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by A. D. Buehler, Gettysburg.

A Bilious Fever.

A bilious fever is a serious complaint, but it is never a dangerous one if you have Radway's Regulating Pills at hand—as you should have if you would exercise ordinary prudence. Take six of Dr. Radway's Pills as soon as you find yourself afflicted with bilious fever, and in six hours take six pills more, if the first dose has not operated. The second dose will certainly have the desired effect. After that feel no alarm. All peril is over. Continue to take from two to four pills every day, until you are completely well. It will require but a few days to restore you to your wonted health and strength, for Radway's Pills do not prostrate the patient, and reduce him to a state of helplessness, while expelling the disorder from his system. They sustain him. They wholly differ in this particular from all other pills, which commonly exhaust nature so rapidly in their violent operation, as to do almost as much mischief as the disease itself. Bilious fevers are occasioned by a derangement of the liver. That important organ supplies the bile, without which the food we take into the stomach would never be properly digested. But even a common cold will sometimes disorder the action of the liver. That it supplies either too much or too little bile, and bilious complaints are the consequence. S

A Lecture to Young Men.

JUST published, in a sealed envelope.—Price 6 cents. A Lecture on the nature, treatment and radical cure of Spermatorhœa, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Emissions, Sexual Debility and Impediments to Marriage generally. Nervousness, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits; Mental and Physical incapacity, resulting from Self-Abuse, &c. By Robert J. Culverwell, M. D., author of the "Green Book," &c.

The world renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves, from his own experience, that the awful consequences of Self Abuse may be effectually removed without Medicine, and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings, or cordials, pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically. This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands. Sent under seal to any address, in a plain, sealed envelope, on receipt of six cents, or two postage stamps. Another Large Stock

OF NEW GOODS

JUST RECEIVED AT GRIMES'S.

James A. Grimes, York street, has been to the city again, to replenish his stock, which went off so rapidly, because it was so very good and so very cheap. The new stock beats anything he has yet offered to this community, and he hopes all the people will come and see for themselves. His new purchase of SYRUPS can't be beat, and he will sell from a pint up to a barrel; his SUGARS are of all varieties, including the very primest; his COFFEES are the best in the market; his FISH are elegant; and his FLOUR extra.

He has laid in a large lot of STONE-WARE, which he offers cheap, and is sure will please—so with his WOODEN-WARE, QUEENSWARE, LAMPS, PICKLES, SPICES, CONFECTIONARY, Tobacco and Segars, and the thousand other things to be found in his very full and complete Store. By selling cheap, and selling quick, he expects to get along quite as well as those who have greater profits, but sell slower. [June 11, 1866.

MOWERS & REAPERS.

THE undersigned is still Agent for the sale of MOWING AND REAPING MACHINES—both combined and single Mowers.

These machines can be used as Self-Rakers or Hand Rakers, as farmers may wish. They are made with two cutter bars, one for cutting grain with sickle knife—cutting five feet nine inches wide—and extra bar, with two knives, for grass,—cutting four feet six inches wide, having iron or wooden frames as desired.—They have two driving wheels and flexible finger bar.

The company building these machines have secured by lease and purchase, the control of all the desirable and standard patents now in use, among which are the

to which we direct special attention. In completeness, lightness of draft, excellence of workmanship and finish, combined with great strength and adaptation to all kinds of work, they will compete with, and we believe, surpass, any other machine now offered to the public.

Farmers would do well to examine these machines before purchasing any other. They will be sold as cheap as any other first-class machine now manufactured, and we warrant them to give entire satisfaction or no sale.

☞ Extras always kept on hand. Specimen machines can be seen by calling on the Agent, residing on the Harrisburg road, two miles north-east of Gettysburg.

Bitter Wine of Iron.

AN exquisite impregnation of dry Spanish Wine with the activity of CALISAYA BARK, and the most energetic of all the ferruginous salts, CITRATE OF MAGNETIC OXIDE OF IRON. It has a vinous flavor, very grateful to the palate, is without chalybeate taste and will not discolor the teeth.

It excites languid appetite, gives zest to food, improves digestion, increases the strength, steadies the circulation, takes off muscular flabbiness, removes the pallor of debility, gives firmness and precision to the actions of the nervous system, with power to endure fatigue and resist disease.

MAGNETIC CITRATE of IRON is new and peculiar, differing from the ordinary Soluble Citrate, in containing an equivalent of Protoxide of Iron, in place of the Ammonia. It is neutral, tasteless, without astringency, as prompt and energetic as the Chloride, and unlike that, induces no local inflammatory action or headache.

CALISAYA BARK is pre-eminent among vegetable tonics, has no equal as a strengthener or restorative, nor rival as an anti-periodic.

Retails in $1 & $2 bottles, Quarts & Gallons for dispensing.

THE HUBBARD.

THE undersigned are agents for the sale of Hubbard's celebrated Mowers and Reapers, both combined and single Mowers and Self-Rakers. Farmers would do well to examine our specimen machines before purchasing any other. We warrant satisfaction or no sale. The advantages of the Hubbard as a Mower, are its light draft, great strength, simplicity and durability, freedom from all side draft, no weight on the horses' necks, and is easy work for two small horses. The main features and advantages of the Hubbard as a Mower are retained in the Reaper, and can be changed from a Mower to a Reaper by changing three bolts and two shoe pins. The raker, with one easy natural motion, brings the grain towards him and deposits it in a compact sheaf in the rear of the machine, leaving ample room for the machine to pass next time around. The Self-Rake has no equal; it is a reel and a rake combined. The driver by use of a lever regulates the size of the bundle, and it can be worked in all kinds of grain from the shortest oats to the tallest rye; is very simple in construction, and less liable to get out of repair than any other Rake. They are made with two cutter bars, one for cutting grain with sickle knife, cutting five feet nine inches wide, and an extra bar, with two knives, for grass, cutting four feet eight inches wide. Extras always kept on hand. Specimen machines can be seen by calling on the agents, residing near Gulden's Station. Post office address, Granite Hill, Pa.

Soluble Pacific Guano.

200 LBS. SOLUBLE PACIFIC GUANO contains 70 lbs. animal matter, yielding 7 to 8 lbs. ammonia.

Also 80 to 90 lbs. earthy bone Phosphate of lime, 30 lbs. of which are soluble phosphate.

It combines all the advantages of the best brands of Super Phosphate, with those of Peruvian Guano.

By reason of its greater concentration, we recommend 20 per ct. less by weight to be used per acre, than of any fertilizer costing the same per ton; and no more per acre than of those selling at 20 per ct. more per ton.—Hence its economy.

This guano weighs 65 lbs. per bushel, hence in applying it farmers must be governed by weight and not by bulk, for it is much lighter than the Super Phosphates. Every cargo duly inspected.

"Flour of Bone."

WE will give a money guarantee of the purity of this article. It is pure unsteamed, unburnt bone, reduced to the fineness of flour, which adds 100 per ct. to its value. It is as quick and active as acid dissolved bone, hence its value is vastly greater, because it contains neither acid nor water, which necessarily add weight, and reduce the quantity of valuable elements. We recommend 250 lbs. to be used in place of 300 lbs. Super Phosphate or dissolved bone.

Various Matters.

☞Judging from the number and nastiness of the hard names which the self-styled Union organs apply to Andrew Johnson, the wonder is with us how their party ever had the stomach to nominate him for Vice President.

☞The movement recently inaugurated to make it appear that "Geary" is the soldiers' favorite, is a dead failure. The "boys in blue" know all about the "hero." They know exactly how, and where, and when, he fought.

☞The little borough of Milton, Pa., sets a good, though rather an expensive example. It supplies lime gratuitously, for whitewashing purposes, and where there is a board or scantling it is sure to receive a coat of white. Little danger of the cholera in that place.

☞The difference between the Soldiers of Cumberland county and the disunion politicians, since the convention of Monday last, is that the Soldiers are "the boys in blue" and the radical politicians are "the boys in the blues."—Volunteer.

Barren's Safety Lamps,

AND
LIG-RO-INE (Red) FLUID.
PATENTED.

THIS Lamp apparently burns without anything to feed it. It has, however, a material which absorbs the liquid and gives it to the flame, partly from the wick, and partly in the form of gas, but so as to produce perfect combustion, and is very economical and safe.

It is used without a chimney, and perfectly trimmed, does not smoke or smell; it is therefore especially adapted to the purposes of a "ran about," night, nurse, shop or hotel lamp, or lantern. The cost of broken chimneys, alone, will more than pay the cost of this lamp. Every family needs one or more.

"It is just what I have been long looking for," writes a model house-keeper.

NEW FIRM.

AT THE OLD STAND.
[ESTABLISHED IN 1817.]

I have associated with me, in business, my son, John F. McCreary, under the firm and style of D. McCreary & Son, and I desire to say to my old friends and the public generally that since the war, the manufacture of Saddles, Harness, Collars, &c., has been revived at the old established and well known stand on Baltimore street, one square south of the Court House, Gettysburg, Pa.

Having had an experience of 40 years in this establishment, I feel assured, that, with renewed attention to business, we can still further merit and receive a full share of public patronage. DAVID McCREARY.

With increased facilities for conducting our business, we are better prepared than ever to satisfy the wants of all those who may need anything in our line. We especially call the attention of Farmers and others to the superior quality of our

Plain or Quilted Seat Horn Saddles,	Side Leathers,
Plain or Quilted Seat no Horn,	Hames, all kinds, with or without fastenings
Plain or Quilted Seat Side Saddles,	Housings,

BELL'S Concentra'd Flavoring Extracts!

EQUAL to any in the market and superior to many, in larger bottles, and at old prices.

Wholesale agents for Baltimore,
BURROUGH BROS.,
Wholesale Druggists.

LIST.—Lemon, Orange, Vanilla, Rose, Peach, Nutmeg, Celery, Allspice, Cloves, Ginger, Birch, Cinnamon, Apple, Mulberry, Pine Apple, Banana, Mace, Raspberry, Pear, Pepper, Parsley, Strawberry, Bitter Almond, and Savory spices.

The great difficulty heretofore experienced in procuring true Flavoring Extracts, has induced the proprietor to spare no pains or expense in giving to the public an article which will be found true to its name, and which will in no instance be a source of disappointment.

It will be observed that our extract of Lemon and Orange is a prepared extract from the Peel, which any one may be convinced of by merely smelling them.

The price of Vanilla Beans, too, has caused more useless Extract of Vanilla to be manufactured and sold than any other essence; being either made from Tonka Beans, or some other fictitious compound. In our Extract we WILL GUARANTEE A PURE ARTICLE! made from the true Bean, without any foreign substance whatever.

Bell's Worm Syrup.

THE MOST INNOCENT, PLEASANT AND EFFICIENT REMEDY IN USE.—A REMEDY PERFECT IN ITSELF.—No Castor Oil to be Taken.—In this Preparation we have included such remedies only as have been tried for years and are known to possess powerful anthelmintic virtues, combined with mild aperients, pleasant aromatics and sugar. Anthelmintics of themselves cannot perform their peculiar functions or have the desired effect, unless the bowels are kept moderately open. To produce this, gentle purgatives are necessary and such only ought to be used that cannot interfere with the anthelmintic employed. The advantages we claim for this Syrup are:

1st. Its power of DESTROYING AND EXPELLING WORMS!

2d. Its mild aperient effect upon the bowels.

3d. Its pleasant taste and odor are advantages possessed or claimed by very few Vermifuges.

4th. Its harmless influence upon the system, consequently no injurious effects will result from its use should the patient have no Worms, but an apparent disease, arising from some other unknown cause, which is frequently the case.

The constituents of this Syrup and its effects are known to many Physicians, who are now using it in their practice to a large extent.

Price 25 cents a bottle.

The Greatest Liniment in Use.

BELL'S WHITE OIL!—The Blandest, Cleanest, most Penetrating and most Economical Liniment in Use.—A powerful Oleaginus Compound for the Speedy Cure of Rheumatism, Strains, Sprains, Wounds, Numbness of the Limbs, Frosted Feet and Hands, Spavin, Saddle Galls, Poll-Evil, Ring Bone, Bruises, Swellings of all kind, and in fact every disease for which an Embrocation is applicable, either in Man or Beast. Price 25 cents a bottle.—This preparation, which is original with us, will be found to be one of the nicest and at the same time one of the most reliable applications extant.

Having been employed very extensively since its introduction and feeling satisfied of its remedial properties, we recommend it with the utmost confidence, knowing that no one will be disappointed in its use. It is, as its name implies, a white liniment of the consistency of cream, containing nothing offensive, but, on the contrary, will be found more pleasant than otherwise.

Bell's Alterative,

OR CONDITION POWDERS!
FOR HORSES, CATTLE & SWINE.
25 cents a paper, or five papers for $1.

The immense sale of these Powders during the short period they have been before the public, is a sufficient guarantee of their great popularity, and the decided benefits derived from their use.

They are confidently recommended not only as a preventive, but as a complete cure for all diseases incident to the HORSE, COW or HOG, as Loss of Appetite, Coughs, Heaves, Yellow Water, Distemper, Glanders, &c., &c.

By their use the Horse's Appetite is improved, all derangements of the digestive organs corrected, softening the skin, and giving to the coat a sleek and shining appearance, and may be used with perfect safety at all times, as it contains no ingredients which can injure a horse, whether sick or well.

They cleanse the breathing apparatus by ejecting from the air cells coagulated matter, or that formation which so severely clogs them, causing a tightness in breathing, and by their peculiar action on that part, they cause the mucus membrane to resume its natural dimensions, thus equalizing the circulation of the blood and restoring the distended vessels to their natural size.

For fattening cattle they are invaluable, also possessing peculiar properties in increasing the quantity of milk in Cows, thereby giving them an importance and value which should place them within the hands of all interested.

All diseases to which the Hog is subject, as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs and Liver, and as a general purifier of the blood we guarantee their efficacy if once fairly tried.

TAKE NOTICE.

FARMERS AND DEALERS IN FERTILIZERS will please take notice that we have adopted the following Trade Mark to protect ourselves, and prevent those who use our RAW BONE SUPER PHOSPHATE from being deceived when purchasing manures.

We have been obliged to give this protection to our customers, in consequence of several parties having unlawfully used our distinctive name, viz: "Raw Bone," in offering their article to the public. This Trade Mark is adopted in addition to the title "Raw Bone," which is our exclusive property, and we caution all manufacturers from using it in future. We would state to the trade and consumers, that they will find it to their interest to see that the "Trade Mark" is upon every bag and barrel they purchase, as none other is genuine.

CHOLERA PREVENTIVE!

I.
X. 1866. L.
THE GREAT ZINGARI BITTERS.

THIS WONDERFUL REMEDY was discovered and introduced about twenty years ago by Dr. S. Cheopsus, an eminent Egyptian physician.

He had long seen and felt the want of some remedy which would strike at the root of disease, and so prevent much of the suffering which the human family was then compelled to endure.

The great question was presented to his mind every day in vivid colors as he moved among the sick and dying, and observed the inefficiency of nearly all the remedies then in use. Thus he was lead to think and experiment; and after ten years of study and labor, he presented to his fellow man the wonderful Zingari Bitters. The effect of this preparation in the prevention and cure of disease, was so marvellous and astonishing, that the most flattering marks of royal favor were bestowed upon him who discovered it. His name was placed upon the Roll of Nobles, and a gold medal with the following inscription—Dr. S. Cheopsus, the Public Benefactor—was presented to him by the Viceroy.

The preparation has been used in several epidemics of cholera, both as a preventive and curative measure, and with such great success that it has been introduced into nearly all the general hospitals of the old world.

The old saying that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, applies with marvellous force to cholera, and therefore any remedy that will protect us against this terrible disease should be freely and persistently used.

All pathologists now agree that the cholera poison acts on the system through the blood, and that any combination which acts on the excretory organs, and keeps them in working order, must prevent a sufficient accumulation of the poison to exert its terrible effects on the organism. This is true not only of cholera, but of nearly all other maladies, especially the different forms of fevers.

The Zingari Bitters is just such a remedy as the above conditions require. It acts on the organs of excretion and secretion, keeping up a perfect balance between them: This Bitters is composed entirely of roots and herbs, so nicely concocted that every organ is acted upon and put in tone. Its taste is pleasant and its effects prompt and lasting.

Numerous cases of the following diseases have been cured by it: Cholera, Diarrhœa, Typhoid and Typhus Fever, Fever, Ague, Nervous Debility, Anæmia, Female Irregularities, Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Colic, Scrofula, &c.

Price, one dollar per quart bottle.

The Greatest Family Medicine in the World,

FOR

SORE THROAT,

OR

DIPTHERIA.

The attention of the public, and especially the sufferers from that dreadful disease, Diptheria or Sore Throat, is called to the great remedy known as

Stonebraker's BALSAM, OR PAIN KILLER,

As a sure cure for Sore Throat or Diptheria, Croup, Bronchitis, Scarlet Fever, &c., and all other diseases of the throat, and also an infallible remedy for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus, Sick Headache, Sudden Colds and Coughs, Neuralgia, Phthisic, Old Sores, &c. It is also invaluable for Bruises, Frosted Feet, Swelled Joints, Bites of Poisonous Insects, &c., and a prompt and sure remedy for Cramp Cholic and all Pains in the Stomach and Bowels.

This medicine has been tried in thousands of cases in different parts of the country, and has never failed to cure if used in time, and according to directions. A great amount of suffering might often be saved by having a couple of bottles of this valuable medicine in the house. As an evidence of its great qualities the proprietor warrants every bottle to give entire satisfaction.

Try it and be convinced of its great value.

STONEBRAKER'S GREAT COUGH REMEDY, VEGETABLE COUGH SYRUP

For the Rapid Cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Difficulty of Breathing, Spitting of Blood, First Stages of Consumption, Soreness of the Throat, and all Affections of the Pulmonary Organs.

This Syrup is an invaluable remedy for the alleviation and cure of Pulmonary Diseases. It is prompt in its action, pleasant to the taste, and from its extreme mildness, is peculiarly applicable to the use of children and persons in delicate health. As an anodyne expectorant, it will always be found to be beneficial, by alleviating and arresting the several spells of coughing so distressing to the patient.

The afflicted can rely upon its doing of much, or more than any other remedy in soothing the nerves, facilitating expectoration, and healing the Diseased Lungs, thus striking at the root of all diseases and eradicating it from the system.

All I ask is a trial of this preparation, as it has no equal in its effects, and never fails to give entire satisfaction to all who use it. We warrant it in all cases or the money refunded.

Try it—only 25 and 50 Cents a Bottle.
